The Aquis Hair Towel: Instant Beauty After Active Summer Days

Hot summer days are on the horizon, and with them come the challenges of maintaining healthy skin and hair while enjoying an active outdoor lifestyle. Aquis has just the tool to help keep hair healthy and save time too, keeping primp time to a minimum.

The Aquis Microfiber hair towel dries hair five times faster than cotton. That means less time using a harsh blow dryer, and more time hitting the beach, trail, or wherever summer's adventures may take you.

As a special bonus, this lightweight, compact towel takes up very little room in a purse or beach gear, but still dries your entire body with absorbency to spare. Each towel comes in its own zip lock vinyl bag, so you won't need to worry about anything else around it getting wet or dirty.

One at home, and one "in the bag", means a woman who is ready for anything this summer!

NORDSTROM

The Aquis hair towel is available at Nordstrom stores nationwide. Additionally, watch for Aquis at Nordstrom in-store events this summer.
